DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-20 are pending in this application.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. Applicant's Information Disclosure Statement, filed on 01/16/2004 and 12/4/2003 has been acknowledged. Please refer to Applicant's copies of the 1449 submitted herewith.

Double Patenting

3. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Art Unit: 1624

4. Claims 1-5 and 7-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-7 of prior U.S. Patent No.6,683,081 (parent case). This is a double patenting rejection.

Note that the original claims 1-20 are exactly the same for this divisional case and the parent case 10/149,921. It is presumed that the lactam was drawn incorrectly (see 112 second paragraph rejection). Claims 7-13 are rejected because the claims are drawn to composition (see second paragraph rejection).

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 1-20 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 of U.S. Patent No. 6,683,081.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because there is significant overlap between the instant claims and claims 1-7 of U.S. Patent No. 6,683,081. Note that claims 1-5 are exactly the same except the typographical error in claim 1 for the lactam structure. The original claims 1-20 are exactly the same for this divisional case and the parent case 10/149,921.

Claim Objections

7. Claims 1-4 are objected to because of the following informalities: the recitation of "novel" is improper. It is the office that has to examine the novelty of an invention. Applicants can't label their compound as "novel" before it is examined. It is recommended that applicants delete "novel" from claims 1-4.

8. Claims 1-7 are objected to because of the recitation of "general formula". A formula should be specific and not general. It is recommended that applicants delete "general" from the claims.
9. Claims 8-12 are objected to because they duplicate claim 7. Claims 7 and 8-12 are all drawn to the same composition. Note that a pill is a pill regardless of its intended use.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

10. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 and 14-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention:

- a. Claim 1 and claims dependent thereon are rejected because in claim 1 (page 58) the third chemical structure for the definition of R^4 is defective, because the seven-membered ring is missing an oxygen atom. Note that the seven-membered ring is a lactam i.e. an oxo group ($=O$) is attached to the carbon adjacent to ring N. See pages 9 and 12 in the specification or structure 27 at page 44. Claim 2 for example has the correct structure.

b. Claim 6 is rejected because it is unclear if it is a compound claim or a method of use claim. It starts as a compound claim, but ends up as a method claim. If applicants intend a method claim, then it should be written in a method claim language. If not, claim 6 is a duplicate of claim 1.

c. Claims 14-20 provides for the use of the compounds of the general formula (I), but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

11. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 14-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).
